Innovative and efficient

Trento's commercial bowl cutters are versatile and powerful kitchen appliances that can chop, slice, shred, and mix various ingredients in a large stainless steel bowl. They are designed for high-volume food preparation in restaurants, catering businesses, and other food service establishments. These machines can save time and labor by performing multiple tasks with one machine. They are ideal for commercial kitchens that need to prepare large quantities of sauces, dressings, dips, spreads, and other products.

FEATURES:

- The die-cast and extruded aluminum body withstand heavy use
- The motor and tank are side-by-side
- Food-safe stainless steel bowl with handles and heavy bottom
- Safety micro-switch on lid and lever prevents potential hazards
- Removable blade and bowl that is easy to clean and sanitize
- Speed control that adjusts the cutting intensity and texture
- Long-lasting steel knife can handle any cutting task
- A transparent lid allows visibility and opens to add ingredients
- Comes with a spatula and sharpening stone
